

50

reasons

why

would you

join us

we want to invest in people our people

we're young

we're capable

we value the work/life balance we have talented colleagues we love to travel

you would fit well in the team we have experience in what we want to do we need more challenges we're fun

we want to attract more talent we have a crew from different backgrounds we're not afraid to criticise we're not arrogant

team^{14 reasons}

We want to invest in technology our profession

we have a good infrastructure to start from we've made good business decisions we want to be the best in certain niches we value our employees and our customers we have an opportunity in the market you have a blank canvas to start building on we're at the cutting edge of technology we prioritise inefficiencies out of the way we have track record we have a good base for client work we know where we want to be high standards all around we like to take risks we value innovation we have solid backing good bonuses based on results

17 reasons

work

Good salaries

a JSS dress code (jeans, snickers, sandals) we offer attractive packages nice working environment comfortable chairs

we want to do more offsites powerful hardware/office tools our daily life

we want to create an environment that stimulates learning we do barbequeues

we have 2 offices that both need to grow we often offer free lunch the potential of the company

UK -> RO and RO -> UK osmosis free taxi's if working late at night we've got free drinks free oranges in the winter, free apples (summer) from the garden secure environment

we're close to the city brownbag sessions included

19 reasons advantages